Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lemmon was founded by George Edward Lemmon in 1907 and is rich in history and culture, including the World's Largest Petrified Wood Park, the annual Boss Cowman Celebration and Rodeo, and its affiliation with famed mountain man Hugh Glass; and,

Whereas, Surrounded by sprawling ranches, farms, and magnificent prairies teaming with wildlife, Lemmon is an all-season place located in the heart of the Great Plains and possesses an abundance of activities, including hunting, fishing, golfing, swimming, boating, and rodeos; and,

Whereas, As a community on the move and with a clear vision for the future, Lemmon has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, family-oriented people, which make it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Lemmon in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum where an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns are discussed among the governor, private business representatives, local elected officials, and the general public:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 31, 2016, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
